WELCOME, PATTY MANWARREN!

Patty Manwarren is a competitor.

Manwarren, who will officially join the St. Luke Homes and Services campus on Sept. 9 as its Director of Dietary Services, believes she has found her winning team at the Continuing Care Retirement Community in Spencer.

“I’m excited to work in the same community I live in,” she said.

Prior to joining the St. Luke campus, Manwarren served as the certified dietary manager/food protection professional at Lakes Regional Healthcare in Spirit Lake and as the general manager of Kinbrae Steakhouse in Arnolds Park.

Manwarren is a member of the Association of Nutrition and Foodservice Professionals.

“As a certified dietary manager,” she said, “I’m interested in increasing resident satisfaction while also broadening my culinary and educational horizons within this wonderful long term care organization.”

Manwarren, who anticipates earning a graduate degree in Business Administration from Southwest Minnesota State University in the Spring of 2014, enjoys any type of athletic activity. She completed the Tough Mudder 12-mile mud-run obstacle course in three hours this summer in Somerset, Wis. The premier endurance event tests mental as well as physical strength.

Patty and her husband, Redge, have two children: Owen, 7, and Kathryn, 2.

DISPLAYING AT THE FAIR

St. Luke Homes and Services campus residents will be among those visiting the "World's Greatest County Fair" Sept. 7 - 15. The Clay County Fair, an annual celebration in Spencer since 1917, attracts more than 300,000 people each September for world-class grandstand entertainment, daily livestock and horse shows, thousands of competitive exhibits, every imaginable type of fair food, hundreds of unique commercial vendors, and the largest farm machinery display at any fair in the United States. Another special highlight at the 2013 Clay County Fair will be exhibits in the Creative Living Center by Carol Albers, of the Hillside Terrace Assisted Living residence, and by Bev Beck, Keith Grover, Marion Peters, Cleo Garrod and Rose Marie Kast, all of St. Luke Lutheran Home.

Marion Peters, below left, and Carol Albers are among the St. Luke Homes and Services campus residents who will be displaying their handcrafted works at the 2013 Clay County Fair.

CELEBRATING 'HOMEMADE HAPPINESS'

What do the Clay County Fair and National Assisted Living Week have in common? Invariably, they fall on the same week, making both events even more exciting! With this year's theme, "Homemade Happiness," I thought of the fun of visiting the 4-H and Horticulture buildings with homemade crafts, baked goods and textiles created by participants of all ages. I'm always amazed at the diverse talent and creativity displayed. Although homemade goods are amazing and always better in my book, I think the best ingredients to make homemade happiness are love, kindness, understanding, trust, safety and so on. Every individual who makes their home in our Assisted Living is a living display of these immense abilities they have used to make their own "Homemade Happiness" or as I call it "Home full of Happiness." During Assisted Living Week, we want to show off our own display of talents. Please make it a point to stop in and visit with our residents at Hillside and Riverview Terrace, whose lives are a treasure of immense caring, creativity and giftings that they have used to enrich the lives of others, a true celebration!
